About the Workshop:

The hospitality and tourism industry has undergone transformation to emerge as one of the largest and fastest growing industry in the world with a global orientation due to the liberalization, privatization and globalization of economies the world over. Recognising the benefits of the industry government and stakeholders of hotel and tourism business are working towards the progressive growth. For this, the Ministry of Tourism, Govt. of India reports that the demand on manpower is huge. Also it has been reported that there is a huge gap between the demand and supply of manpower for Hospitality & Tourism Industry. And the gap is proposed to be met by (i) periodic assessment of the skilled manpower needs of the Human resource development in hospitality & tourism industry and formulation of policy and strategy to meet the skill gap, (ii) strengthening and expansion of institutional infrastructure for training and education, (iii) steering and regulating the academic efforts of the Ministry sponsored Institutes, and (iv) Training of aspiring and existing service providers, including certification of their skills.

Therefore, to abridge this massive gap there is a need to develop the budding professional so as to meet the requirement of the most dynamic industry in the world. Keeping in view the Institute of Hotel & Tourism management proposes a seven day workshop on Skill Development Programme in Hospitality and Tourism.

Institute of Hotel & Tourism Management aims to bring in the rich experience of participants into the academic environment through discussions and blend them with inputs from faculty and other resources on the latest in the field.
